NAVIGATING THE GRAY AREAS

SCOTT WILLIAMS
LEAD PASTOR

ROMANS 14

Romans 14:12

“Yes, each of us will give a personal account to God.”

Romans 14:22-23 (Message)

“Cultivate your own relationship with God, but don’t impose it on others. You’re fortunate if your behavior and your belief are coherent. But if you’re not sure, if you notice that you are acting in ways inconsistent with what you believe—some days trying to impose your opinions on others, other days just trying to please them—then you know that you’re out of line. If the way you live isn’t consistent with what you believe, then it’s wrong.”

DISCUSSION IGNITERS

- 1 Romans 14:12 says that each of us will give a personal account of ourselves to God. What do you think that means? Does that thought scare you and if so why?
- 2 How does the average person treat others that have a different opinion than them? As a follower of Christ, how are we commanded to treat others with a different opinion from ours?
- 3 According to this passage we are taught to stay true to our convictions. Should we be open to grow and realize that some of our convictions are not always in alignment with God's Word?
- 4 Is there any convictions you once had that you no longer do? What changed? What is a compromise in your life or a better understanding of Scripture?
- 5 When trying to determine your actions we should consider how those actions affect other people. Do you think this is important? Why or why not?
- 6 Are there any actions in your life that would destroy your testimony about God? What will you do about that?
