DISCUSSION IGNITERS

- 1 When Paul traveled throughout Athens, he saw all the idol worship and he was greatly distressed. How do you feel when you see so many people chasing after “idols of this world”? (i.e. money, fame, power ect.)
- 2 This distress moved Paul to address whomever he came into contact with. In what ways does your distress cause you to act?
- 3 When Paul had the opportunity to speak to people, what was the main topic he would communicate?
- 4 What about you? What is the main topic you speak about when you have an opportunity to speak to people? (Gospel, politics, sports, weather, vaccines, family, aches and pains)
- 5 What is the only topic that can really change a person’s heart?
- 6 If the Gospel is not a subject you communicate to others, in what way will you begin to allow the Gospel to be a primary topic?
- 7 Pastor stated that you are a Kingdom Messenger. How would you rate yourself in doing this?
