PRINCIPLE #7 The gifts of the Spirit are not just for _____; they should be active in my everyday life

- 1 When it comes to the Holy Spirit, what should be the final authority on what we believe to be true? What is the problem with allowing tradition or personal experience determine what we believe to be true?
- 2 I Corinthians 12:7 states why God gave us spiritual gifts. “A spiritual gift is given to each of us so we can help each other.” How do these gifts help us to help others?
- 3 Does everyone have a spiritual gift? How do we know? (See verse 7 again) How would you answer someone that says they don’t have any spiritual gifts?
- 4 Are some gifts more important than others? Why or why not?
- 5 Can you explain how the gift of prophecy has been misused by some?
- 6 Spiritual gifts only operate with human availability. Do you believe this to be true? What are some ways that people become unavailable?
- 7 Should a church service simply be something we watch? What does God expect of us when we come to a service?
- 8 How important do you think it is that leaders should correct the misuse of the gifts? Why?
- 9 Spiritual gifts are not just for church services. God wants to use you everywhere you go. What are some ways God has used his gifting through you to minister to someone else?
