- 1 What were some of your favorite Christmas traditions growing up? What traditions have you carried into your life today?
- 2 What are some things during the Christmas season that try to take center stage in your life or family?
- 3 How have you tried to keep Jesus the main focus during the holiday season?
- 4 The first part of keeping Jesus at the center is learning to wait for His arrival. We call this time “Advent.” Why is it important to learn to wait on God?
- 5 Are there benefits in learning to wait? (See Isaiah 40:30–31)
- 6 What happens when we don’t wait and rush ahead of God in our own plans? Can you think of a time you didn’t wait on God but wished you had?
- 7 What situation in your life are you currently having to “wait on God”?
- 8 How important is it to not just celebrate Jesus at Christmas, but to actually be a lifelong follower of Jesus? What do we call someone who might celebrate but not actually follow? Read 1 John 2:6.
